

NIXIE BELLE GARDEN

A whimsical illustration of a tall, thin character with a long, thin neck and legs. The character is wearing a purple top hat, a purple dress with a yellow and orange patterned skirt, and a purple sash. The character is holding a large, multi-petaled flower with yellow and orange petals and a white center. The character's right hand is on the stem of the flower, and their left hand is holding a small, dark object. The character's feet are small and pointed.

Drawing, color and design all come together to create Nixie Belle Garden.

Karen Stolper hopes to make you laugh, think and delight in daily life.

She's been illustrating the events and ideas that resonate with her and is inspired by the everyday moments.

Her whimsical drawings and long legged characters capture these moments in a single expressive gesture. Something she's been doing since childhood.

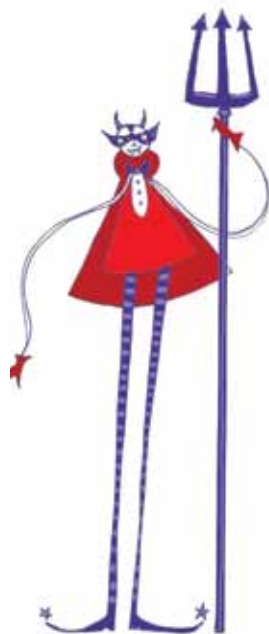

Karen Stolper lives in Princeton, NJ with her husband, two daughters and dog, Whiskey.
